Paying out Accumulated Cash Back

- Cash back will be posted to your participating credit card account as a credit at the beginning of each quarter (January, April, July and October).
- Cash back earned will only be credited for accounts that are open and in good standing (not past due, fraudulent, over limit, restricted or part of any bankruptcy settlement).
- If your account has any status that means your card usage privileges have been revoked, you will forfeit your cash back automatically and permanently.
- If your account is over its credit limit by more than 15%, the cash back calculation and distribution will be suspended. Your cash back accumulation is held for future distribution if your account is brought back to good standing.
- If your account is delinquent two (2) or more cycles, your participation in the program will be suspended. Your cash back accumulation is held for future distribution if your account is brought back to good standing.
- If your account is closed, for a reason other than the Card has been lost or stolen, all cash will be forfeited permanently.
